

Meeting Minutes
08/09/2018

James Finucan of Columbia Gas gave the introduction and went over the Agenda. There was no meeting minutes provided from the previous month to review.

There were 27 members that attended the meeting.

Excavator Seminars are in November, sometime within the first 2 weeks but firm dates have not been set yet. Bowling Green will be the one closest to this area. There will be 6 different dates in total.

There were 133,731 notices for June and 134,222 notices in July which is an increase from previous years.

There will be a coalition meeting in Columbus that will be reviewing the Ohio Revised Code. Many different topics will be reviewed such as the size of the tickets, length of the tickets, scope of the tickets and exemptions. If there is an area or topic you would like to see changed, please let the DPC know so that Jennifer can make sure it is reviewed and your voice heard. If you would like to receive notifications on the updates, please give Jack your email.

The O.U.P.S. Annual Meeting is on August 15th, 16th & 17th in Youngstown Ohio.

Big Brothers and Big Sisters Sporting Clay event will be held on September 28, 2018 at the Cardinal Shooting Center in Marengo Ohio.

The December breakfast meeting still needs a speaker – this can be one speaker or split up into several. Greg Burkhart from AGC was brought up as a candidate. This would be a great opportunity for a company to be represented in front of an audience.

Night meetings – What is the likelihood of attendance for meetings occurring after work hours? DPC could provide pizza as an incentive. Foreman may be more likely to go if it didn't interrupt their workday. This could be done once a quarter. There was further discussion on activities to bring more people in this industry together such as gun ranges/shooting.

Are there any questions or concerns about upcoming projects? Some discussion about when the Dorr St. project will begin.

James made the motion to adjourn and Barry/Tom Smith were 1st and 2nd to adjourn.
